6 Next Meeting: Thursday, July 18th at 10am.

7 Adjourn:

We had a great turnout for the launch of our new course, Real Estate-The New Horizon, in Lawrence on 6/5/24.

Since the class, a number of people have asked if the course would be available again. We are reaching out to you to see if you would be interested in co-sponsoring a class.

The co-sponsor options (see attached) are relatively new and is not how we have done co-sponsoring with LBOR in the past. Since we are following the new co-sponsorship guidelines with other local boards in Kansas, we are also offering this to you.

Option 1 has 2 classes, but we would be willing to modify Option 2, allowing you to offer a single class rather than 2 classes.

If you are interested in Option 1, I can provide options for the second class, as well as dates available. There are 2-3 open dates in July and still quite a few in August.

The cost is $2400 for Option 1 (which includes 2 classes, and you do the registrations). You charge or don't charge whatever you want to.

Option 2 - there is no charge, and one class is okay, but they would register through us at $40 each.

MLS Training feedback:

The class was full of discussions on how LBOR/LMLS could change to become more like the surrounding associations. With all of the discussion, maybe there is an opportunity for new “training” or “new member orientation” materials for all new members.

NAR Settlement classes:

40+ signed up for each class.

Canva Brunch & Learn:

10am start time - Jill is going to check with Secily from Envista to make sure that the new date & time still work for their sponsorship.

Radon:

We heard back (after the meeting) from the Instruction (Laura), and they can do 7/24/24 from 9a - 1p at the LBOR Office.

- Julie is going to reach out to the Merc to see about sponsoring the event.
- $10 fee to attend.

Title Panel:

Nate recommended that we schedule this for fall or springtime.

DEI event:

Tabled at this time due to uncertainty with the DEI Committee and how they would like to proceed.

New Mem. Orientation:

5/29: Jennifer & Karyn

8/28: _____

~~11/27~~

- November class rescheduled to 12/5
