Hi Rob,

Thanks for talking today about the next Ready Set Spring Education Summit. As we discussed, there are a LOT of possibilities.

Please feel free browse www.RealEstateSpeakers.com , download the most recent catalog of overviews, or watch a Speaker Showcase for a quick tour.

I'm happy to share additional information and tips based on what interests you and the committee.

Attached are 4 one page overviews regarding the speakers we discussed specifically for the Summit: Ifoma Pierre ($5200 full day; $4200 half; NYC), The BOOM Team ($6000 half day; Indianapolis), Trista Curzydlo ($4,800 full; $3800 half; Basehor, KS), Maura Neill ($5200 full; $4000 half; Atlanta), and Bobbi Howe ($4500 full; $3000 half; St. Joe). Fees are good for 30 days—pls check again later to make sure they're still accurate. All fees are plus travel.

I brought up this session from Monica Neubauer as an intriguing way to include affiliates & you were interested in it:

The 3 C's of Agent Relationships: Communication, Collaboration and Closing

The real estate professional is the only person who walks with the buyer or seller through every part of the transaction – consultation, searching, contracting, financing, inspecting, closing, and sometimes even the moving. How can you work with other professionals to benefit your mutual clients as well as help to keep the process focused and moving forward? Communication is crucial! Monica Neubauer will explore how agents and vendors can be a powerful team for real estate consumers in this fast-moving marketplace. This program has versions for lenders, appraisers and closing companies to help fine-tune their level of service as well as their bottom line. 1-2 hours

Let me know if you'd like a 1pg overview and/or more information about Monica.

Please also let me know if you & the committee would like to place a hold on any of these speakers.

Thank you again for considering folks from our team. I appreciate the opportunity to work with you again.

Have a great weekend, Rob.

IFOMA PIERRE

Marketing, Technology, Motivation

After surviving three near death encounters in his native country of Trinidad—including almost losing his ear at age 14 in a gang fight—a 17 year old Ifoma Pierre turned his life around. From selling clothes on a wall in Tobago to having his clothing featured in fashion shows; and from using discarded computer parts to learn about technology in New York City to launching 360i Virtual Events, Pierre's entrepreneurial determination eventually led him to real estate. Now an Associate Broker with 15+ years' experience in Queens, New York, Pierre has created a G.E.M., complete training system, has earned the prestigious International John Maxwell Certified Speaker Trainer & Coach designation, and is an in-demand national speaker.

Designations: ABR, GRI, MCNE, SRS, PSA, ePRO, CBR, ITI

"Our members were thrilled with both of Pierre's presentations. They found him engaging, funny, and very motivating. Even between his sessions, people were saying he was a great find and how applicable his presentation to the market right now. He even researched our event sponsors and had their websites in his presentation. He is fantastic!"

— Erin O'Brien, CMP, C2EX, Program & Event Coordinator, Northeast Association of REALTORS®
